PHANAT NIKHOM BASKETRY

The basketry is the craft or process of making baskets or objects woven like baskets. They have produced basket and wicker were from bamboo and ratten for domestic use as well as use in everyday life.

The basketry from bamboo, first of all split the bamboo into strips and weaving in to basketry and it is called “Jak San”

The basketry is the long known local wisdom and it came from a small group of local people who interested in basketry.

The long known local wisdom, Phanat Nikhom basketry is an art of traditional living and has long been passed from generation to generation by Mrs. Pranee Boriboon who started and created Phanat Nikhom Basketry.

Since the district is surrounded by jungle, the residents have made the most use of what around them. They have produced basket and wicker ware from bamboo and ratten for domestic use as well as use in everyday life such as accessories, chairs, tables, hats, household decorative items. It is also an ideal for gifts or souvenir.

By the way, the basketry form Phanat Nikhom is the best OTOP products as part of the slogan in Chonburi province.
